

artforwater

CREATIVITY AWARENESS DIALOGUE CHANGE

Our First Week in Moscow

Art for Water's first week in Moscow, Idaho was busy with paper tearing, school visits, a presentation to the Moscow Rotary Club, and typing in selected written contributions for the video portion of the Stream of Conscience installation . . .

Art for Water raises awareness of the shrinking availability of clean water through the creation of professional, public-participation art installations made by people of all ages.